

DATA SHEET

PESTIFFA®

Presentation

Each 2-ml dose of vaccine contains:

Freeze-dried pellet:

Classical swine fever virus, Chinese strain, at least 100 PD50

Excipient.

Sterile diluent 2 ml

Indication

Modified live vaccine against classical swine fever (Chinese strain CL).

The vaccine induces an immune status against classical swine fever virus, shown by challenge.

Dosage and administration

A 2 ml dose injected intramuscularly into the neck in the area behind the ear, according to the following schedule:

Primary vaccination

- Pigs born of unvaccinated sows:

1 injection as from the 7th day of age.

- Pigs born of vaccinated sows:

In a healthy environment: 1 injection as from the 43rd day of age.

In case of emergency: 1 injection as from the 30th day of age.

For pigs intended for fattening: 1 booster injection during the 2 months following primary vaccination,

For pigs intended for breeding: 1 booster injection one month before puberty at the latest.

Booster vaccination

Every two years.

Contra-indications, warnings, etc

There are no contra-indications.

Vaccinate only healthy animals.

Apply usual aseptic procedures.

Pharmaceutical precautions

Store between +2°C and +8°C, protected from light.

Use immediately after reconstitution with the solvent.

Further information

No known adverse reaction for use during pregnancy or lactation

Merial Asia Pte Ltd
57A Science Park Drive,
The Faraday
Singapore Science Park 1
Singapore 118238